

Trip Sports, Inc.

Tel: 419-739-7714
Fax: 419-739-7715
info@tripsports.com
www.tripsports.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 31, 2009

CONTACT

Todd Utrup
419-739-7714
info@tripsports.com

Trip Sports' Announces Surf City Classic All-Tournament Team

Sarah Soroka and Scott Gillespie named Most Outstanding Players

IRVINE, California (Trip Sports.com) – Trip Sports has announced the All-Tournament Team for its 2009 Surf City Classic. The event was a weeklong event featuring 12 teams from all across the United States, including men's and women's teams. Ten womens players and five mens players were selected.

Sarah Soroka (Daemen College) was announced the female Most Outstanding Player after averaging 18 points and over 7.5 rebounds while Scott Gillespie (Ripon College) was the male Most Outstanding Player. Gillespie averaged 24 points in his two contests.

COMPLETE LIST

MEN

Chris Wilson (Bates College)
Justin Johnson (Concordia University)
Sean Anderson (Occidental College)
Scott Gillespie (Ripon College) – MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER
Aris Wurtz (Ripon College)

WOMEN

Nicole Fu (Concordia University)
Kayanna Nichols (Concordia University)
Sarah Soroka (Daemen College) - MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER
Ashley Hardin (Grand Canyon University)
Chelsea Williamson (Metropolitan State College of Denver)
Jessie Domes (Purchase College)
Stephanie Smith (Washington & Jefferson College)
Tiffany Gregorich (University of Wisconsin – River Falls)
Alise Holst (University of Wisconsin – River Falls)
Brittany Powell (Xavier University)

Trip Sports operates collegiate basketball and volleyball tournaments across the United States. Founded in 1998, the company's office is located in northwest Ohio, while its event locations include Ft. Lauderdale (FL), San Antonio (TX), Phoenix (AZ), Las Vegas (NV), and Orange County (CA). More about Trip Sports can be found on its Web site: www.tripsports.com

###

■ PRESS RELEASE